

*M*ike has overall responsibility for Lauth's office and industrial speculative and build to suit projects across the country and is actively involved in the asset management of the company's entire portfolio.

Mike has over 20 years of experience in the construction and development industries and he has been involved from the ground up in many projects across the country.

Prior to joining Lauth, Mike was a project manager of an Indianapolis based construction company and later served as a project manager for Prologis Trust. Mike graduated from Purdue University with a B.S in Construction Technology.

Michael J. Jones,
Executive Vice President

PEOPLE. TRUST. EXPERIENCE.®